MR. DAN COLE OF CACTUS AND COLE O/A DISTRICT OF CACTUS ATTENDED AT 6:44 PM

Mr. Cole asked council to support the District of Cactus with his issues with the R.M. of Wawken #93 with regard to his wanting to establish a thirty site campground on his property situated in the RM. He felt council should support him as he feels that the establishment of the campground would better improve the visitors to Kennedy. He also asked if he could extend his wooden sidewalks past the edge of the existing cement sidewalk by approximately three feet so that he could establish an eating area outside. Mr. Cole left the meeting at 7:06 pm.

31/22 BRICKLEY: That, due to the excellent working relationship the village has with the RM #93, we not become involved with the District of Cactus' exchange with the R.M. of Wawken #93. CARRIED

32/22 POTTER: That we not allow the District of Cactus to build his deck into the street, but that we offer to move the sign to the North of his building so he could connect his sidewalk to a deck on the North side of his building. CARRIED

MR. JIM TOCHER INQUIRY ABOUT CONSTRUCTING A STEEL QUONSET

Mr. Jim Tocher contacted the village office to inquire about removing the garage on his property and installing an 18 foot high x 35 foot wide x 50 foot long steel Quonset on his property.

33/22 TARR: That, as we have already set president by not allowing a Quonset to be installed on residential land, we not allow this Quonset to be installed on residential land. CARRIED
